

Government funds ambulances after arson attack

The Government has confirmed it will provide a grant for new electric ambulances to replace those destroyed in arson attack.