

Government increases its use of BSL to make communications more accessible

Government BSL translations rose by 41% this year and 161% since 2023, making official communications more accessible for BSL users.