

Government launches new national Legal Advisors service for rape victims and expands Operation Soteria into the courtroom

Rape victims will have access to dedicated legal advice throughout the criminal justice process, while new project will look at shifting the focus of rape court cases from the victim to the perpetrator.