

Government pledges to reverse decline in foster carer numbers

New action in early 2026 to address urgent need for more foster carers and support retention of existing carers.