

Government publishes proposals for package of transitional measures to support research and innovation sector affected by Horizon Europe delays

Government sets out a new package of transitional measures to ensure the stability and continuity of funding for researchers and businesses.