

Government supports top students out of Gaza to take up UK scholarships

Foreign and Education Secretaries announce Gazan students will arrive in the UK to take places at universities following government support to help them leave Gaza