

Government vows to “unlock opportunities for young people across the country” ahead of National Apprenticeship Week

Young people across the country are to benefit from a clearer path into apprenticeships, as the Prime Minister vows to “unlock opportunities for young people across the country” ahead of National Apprenticeship Week.