

Government welcomes expert-led recommendations for a new bovine TB eradication strategy

Experts recommend new science-led approach aiming to protect farmers and reduce infection