

Government works in partnership with industry to unlock £30 million electric vehicle R&D project

Backed by £15 million in government funding, Toyota will lead a cutting-edge match-funded project to boost zero-emission vehicle innovation in a major win for the government's modern Industrial Strategy.