

Great British Energy to cut energy bills for community facilities

Great British Energy to cut energy bills for local community libraries, fire stations, care homes and community centres.