

Great British Summer Savings: Major businesses pass on VAT cut to families on days out

Some of the UK's most prominent leisure and hospitality businesses have committed to passing on summer savings to families as they met the Chancellor today – ahead of the government's Great British Summer Savings scheme goin...