

Great British Summer Savings: VAT slashed to save families money on days out

Families will enjoy discounted attractions and meals out this summer, with the launch of the government's Great British Summer Savings scheme to help people enjoy day out for less.