

Green Party condemns government's lack of progress on LGBTIQ+ rights

18 August 2020

- Two years since government published LGBT Action Plan yet still no action
- Greens condemn lack of progress and demand Liz Truss recommit to plan
- Natalie Bennett: "This government made a promise to the LGBTIQ+ community to make lives better, but the copious delays have meant more suffering and uncertainty."

The Green Party has condemned the government's lack of progress on its own LGBT Action Plan more than two years after it was published.

Theresa May published the plan while Prime Minister in July 2018 [1], yet the government has so far failed to publish its annual review of progress.

At the time the plan was published, then Minister for Women and Equalities Penny Mordaunt promised that she was "determined to help make the UK a country that works for LGBT people because no matter what your gender identity or sexual orientation is, you should be able to reach your full potential."

While the plan was welcomed as a positive step forward when it was announced, two years later the lack of progress has become notable.

The Green Party has now urged the current Equalities Minister Liz Truss to recommit to the LGBT Action Plan and deliver on the promises the government has made.

Green peer Natalie Bennett said: "The lack of progress on the LGBT Action Plan is incredibly disappointing.

"This government made a promise to the LGBTIQ+ community to make lives better, but the copious delays have meant more suffering and uncertainty. The absence of leadership has allowed transphobia and bigotry to prosper."

Two years since the publication of the plan, the government has failed to:

- Ban conversion therapy – despite repeated promises [2]
- Deliver on the promise to reform the Gender Recognition Act – and make legal recognition of one's gender a kinder process [3]
- Launch an enquiry on the needs of non-binary people [4]
- Collect improved data on LGBTIQ+ lives – including the prevalence of LGBTIQ+ suicides [5]
- Fully roll out PrEP with a sufficient budget for commissioning [6]
- Tackle unreasonably long waiting times at Gender Identity Clinics [7]
- Make the asylum process for LGBTIQ+ refugees fairer [8]

LGBTIQ+ Greens deputy chair Lee-Anne Lawrance said: “The absence of the annual report is disturbing. Is the government’s commitment to equality waning?”

“I’d urge Liz Truss to not delay any more. Ban conversion therapy. Reform the Gender Recognition Act. Recommit to the LGBT Action Plan.”
