14 June 2017

Respondiong to the news that Tim Farron has resigned as leader of the Liberal Democrats, the leaders of the Green Party said:

"We wish Tim the best of luck in his next challenge. Though we do not share all of the Liberal Democrat's politics, we recognise the need for a powerful opposition to Theresa May and the DUP's regressive alliance and will work with Tim's successor where we find common ground to create a Britain that is open to all and a friend to Europe."
