

Greens and Labour level pegging in latest poll

16 October 2025 by Green Party

Responding to the latest poll that puts The Green Party level pegging with Labour on 15%, Green Party Leader Zack Polanski said,

“When I was elected, I said we weren’t here to be disappointed in Labour, we’re here to replace them. And I meant it. Our membership is surging – already over 115,000, up 70% from when I was elected last month. We’re about to overtake the Conservatives in membership size and watch this space, we are about to overtake Labour in the polls. British politics is changing, Greens are giving Britain hope again.”
