

Ground-breaking use of AI saves taxpayers' money and delivers greater government efficiency

The government's AI tool Consult analysed 50,000+ responses to the Independent Water Commission review in 2 hours, matching human accuracy and potentially saving 75,000 days of manual work each year.