

Growth and security at the forefront in UK funding boost for European Space Agency

The UK's economy and security will benefit from a new £1.7 billion investment package in European Space Agency (ESA) programmes.