

Guidance: Guidance to help inform when an upland breeding wader survey is needed and when woodland creation is likely to be appropriate

This guidance has been jointly produced by Defra, Forestry Commission and Natural England to help ensure that proposals for afforestation identify and avoid important breeding wader sites.