

Guidance: Submit a residue control plan for exports to Great Britain

Guidance for competent authorities submitting a residue control plan and test results to Defra for exports of products of animal origin for human consumption to Great Britain.