

H2OPE Centre hydrates young minds

The newly opened H2OPE Centre provides information on water resources and conservation to foster a culture of cherishing water.

News.gov.hk interviewed engineers from the Water Supplies Department to learn how children can discover more about the water cycle and the environment through interactive games at the centre.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (January 19) in text and video format.