

Health and Social Care Secretary sets out plan for patients with new funding to bolster social care over winter

Health and Social Care Secretary and Deputy Prime Minister Thérèse Coffey announces the government's new Our Plan for Patients to improve care for patients this winter and next.