Helping the Department for Transport increase data resilience

The DfT needed to understand data flows within cargo shipments to identify and mitigate potential supply chain risks.