

Helping the MOD and the defence industry navigate the single source regulatory framework for key supply-chain contracts

The SSRO has published new guidance that will help all stakeholders identify and apply the regulatory framework for single source defence contracts to qualifying sub-contracts.