

Hepatitis B vaccines for babies

All babies in the UK get the hepatitis B vaccine. It has a well-established safety record and ensures long-term protection against the virus.