

Heylo Housing Registered Provider Limited grading under review

Press release

Providers being investigated for an issue regarding their compliance with the Governance and Financial Viability Standard are added to the regulator's GUR list.

The Regulator of Social Housing reports that Heylo Housing Registered Provider Limited has been placed on its gradings under review list today (7 July 2022).

The regulator is currently investigating a matter which may impact on the provider's compliance with the governance element of the Governance and Financial Viability Standard. Once completed, the outcome of the investigation will be confirmed in a regulatory judgement.

The regulator notifies that a provider's grading is under review when it is being investigated in relation to an issue which may result in it receiving a non-compliant grade (G3 or G4 for governance, or V3 or V4 for viability).

The regulator's gradings under review list is available on its website.

Notes to editors

1. The GUR lists providers where we are investigating a matter that might result in them being assessed as non-compliant in relation to the regulator's Governance and Financial Viability Standard.
2. The regulatory standards can be found on the RSH website.

3. The Regulator of Social Housing promotes a viable, efficient and well-governed social housing sector able to deliver homes that meet a range of needs. It does this by undertaking robust economic regulation focusing on governance, financial viability and value for money that maintains lender confidence and protects the taxpayer. It also sets consumer standards and may take action if these standards are breached and there is a significant risk of serious detriment to tenants or potential tenants.
