

High fuel margins 'concerning' CMA finds

The CMA's latest monitoring report on road fuel shows that prices at the pump have risen since late January, accompanied by above average margins and spreads.