

HK blooms at BJ expo

Hong Kong's unique mix of urban and natural landscapes is being creatively showcased through the Hong Kong Garden at the 2019 Beijing International Horticultural Exhibition.

News.gov.hk spoke to three Architectural Services Department architects to find out more about the planning and construction of the garden, and how it also promotes urban greening in Hong Kong.

The story appears on news.gov.hk today (May 5) in both text and video format.