

HKETO, Brussels supports sixth Barcelona International Dragon Boat Festival (with photos)

The Hong Kong Economic and Trade Office in Brussels (HKETO, Brussels) supported the sixth Barcelona International Dragon Boat Fest, held from May 23 to 25 (Barcelona Time) in Castelldefels, Barcelona in Spain.

Presenting awards on May 25, Assistant Representative of HKETO, Brussels Mr Paul Leung remarked that dragon boat racing is a celebration of sportsmanship, culture and community spirit. "In addition to being an international trade, financial and logistics centre, Hong Kong is a dynamic city where sports form a key part of its citizen's lives. With the newly opened Kai Tak Sports Park, Hong Kong will be hosting more international sports and cultural events, showcasing the city's remarkable vibrancy," he added.

He also invited attendees to visit Hong Kong to dive into its colourful arts scene, savour world-class cuisine, explore breathtaking nature, relax on golden beaches, and experience the city's unforgettable energy.

More than 700 participants and 30 dragon boat teams from 16 countries or regions took part in the Festival's competitions. In addition, visitors experienced the fun of the sport by rowing a dragon boat sponsored by HKETO, Brussels and visited the Hong Kong booth to learn more about the city.
