

Homes England achieves highest number of completions since 2020 as new era of housing and regeneration delivery hits the ground running

Government agency surpasses number of starts, completions and land unlocked compared to previous year and exceeds two of three 2025/26 key targets.