

Honduras Launches National Strategy to Combat Organized Crime with Support from UNODC and the UK

Honduras officially launched a new national strategy to tackle organized crime, developed with technical assistance from the United Nations Office on Drugs and Crime (UNODC) and partial funding from the United Kingdom.