Hong Kong Customs yesterday (May 16) detected a drug trafficking case involving baggage concealment at Hong Kong International Airport. About 13 kilograms of suspected cannabis buds with an estimated market value of about $2.8 million were seized.

A 27-year-old foreign male passenger arrived in Hong Kong from Bangkok, Thailand yesterday. During customs clearance, the suspected cannabis buds weighing about 13kg in total were found in 24 bags inside his check-in suitcase. The man was subsequently arrested.

The arrested person has been charged with one count of trafficking in a dangerous drug. The case will be brought up at the West Kowloon Magistrates' Court on May 19, 2025.

Customs will continue to step up enforcement against drug trafficking activities through intelligence analysis. The department also reminds members of the public to stay alert and not participate in drug trafficking activities for monetary return. They must not accept hiring or delegation from another party to carry controlled items into and out of Hong Kong. They are also reminded not to carry unknown items for other people.

Customs will continue to apply a risk assessment approach and focus on selecting passengers from high-risk regions for clearance to combat transnational drug trafficking activities.

Under the Dangerous Drugs Ordinance, trafficking in a dangerous drug is a serious offence. The maximum penalty upon conviction is a fine of $5 million and life imprisonment.

Members of the public may report any suspected drug trafficking activities to Customs' 24-hour hotline 182 8080 or its dedicated crime-reporting email account (crimereport@customs.gov.hk) or online form (eform.cefs.gov.hk/form/ced002/en).
