Hong Kong Customs yesterday (November 26) seized about 1.3 million suspected illicit cigarettes with an estimated market value of about $3.5 million and a duty potential of about $2.4 million at Man Kam To Control Point.

Customs officers intercepted an incoming truck declared as carrying assorted goods at Man Kam To Control Point yesterday. After inspection, Customs officers found the batch of suspected illicit cigarettes in 160 carton boxes mix-loaded with other goods on the truck.

The 58-year-old male driver was arrested and the truck was detained. Investigation is ongoing.
