

Hong Kong Flower Show photo competition entries to close on April 15

Entries for the "Ablaze with Glory" photo competition, one of the activities of the Hong Kong Flower Show (HKFS) 2025 which concluded earlier, will close on April 15. Members of the public interested in joining the competition are reminded to enrol and upload their entries via the electronic link (eform.cefs.gov.hk/form/lcs095/en).

The photo competition is jointly presented by the Leisure and Cultural Services Department (LCSD) and Television Broadcasts Limited (TVB). The competition aims to promote community greening with impressive photographs of flowers and plants on display, interesting or touching scenes captured at the showground, and portraits of TVB artistes and Miss Hong Kong titleholders with beautiful garden displays as a background.

The photo competition is divided into three categories: Category A – Portrait of TVB Artistes and Miss Hong Kong; Category B – Flowers; and Category C – Snapshots.

Entries for Category A, comprising the Open and Student Sections, must be photos of TVB artistes and Miss Hong Kong titleholders taken by entrants to the activity, Portrait Photo Shooting Session, on March 13 at the showground in Victoria Park. Entries for Category B must be photos of flowers including garden displays or floral art exhibits taken at the showground during the show period. Entries for Category C must be photos of interesting features or moments at the flower show taken during the show period.

Results of the competition will be announced in June on the flower show webpage. Winners will be notified in writing for the collection of prizes. All winning entries will be uploaded onto the flower show webpage for public viewing at the same time.

The HKFS is organised by the LCSD. The Hong Kong Jockey Club Charities Trust has supported the flower show for the 13th consecutive year and has been its major sponsor since 2014.
