

Hongkong Post to adjust the provision of postal services

Hongkong Post announced today (March 5) that in view of the latest epidemic situation, it will cease the provision of LocalCourierPost Service and local parcel service with effect from March 7 (Monday) until further notice.

Facing the current severe epidemic situation, Hongkong Post will strive to focus resources to maintain essential postal services to members of the public. Hongkong Post apologises for the inconvenience caused by the above adjustment of postal services and looks to the understanding of members of the public. For more information, members of the public may visit Hongkong Post's website on www.hongkongpost.hk or call the Hongkong Post enquiry hotline at 2921 2222.

Hongkong Post will continue to attach priority to the health and safety of its staff as well as members of the public. Apart from enhancing the provision of protective measures to staff, Hongkong Post will continue to implement measures for social distancing and infection control at all postal facilities.
