

Hospices receive multi-million pound boost to improve facilities

The government has confirmed the release of £25 million for upgrades and refurbishments today for hospices across England,