

Hospital Authority clarifies Internet captured photo

In response to media enquiry on an Internet photo which claimed to be captured from Hospital Authority (HA) system, the spokesperson for HA made the following clarification today (September 12):

The concerned photo is not captured from HA system. Public hospital Accident and Emergency Departments had received 46 casualties in relations to mass gathering in various districts from August 31 to September 2. All patients had been treated and discharged, while no patient deceased.