

Housing associations hit record reinvestment despite economic pressures, RSH Value for Money report reveals

RSH publishes Value for Money metrics annually so boards and other stakeholders can assess how each housing association is performing against its peers.