

Husband and wife trustees removed from Birmingham education charity

Charity Commission inquiry finds serious financial mismanagement at charity which only filed one annual return in twenty-three years.