

IAA launches training video series to support advisers

Five training videos are now available, with a further five to be released covering additional key areas of immigration advice and practice.