

Immigration Department clarifies rumour

Regarding an online rumour claiming that the Singapore Government has cancelled the visa-free access for Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) passport holders, the Consulate General of Singapore in Hong Kong today (November 18) clarified immediately that the HKSAR passport holders do not need a visa to enter Singapore. The Immigration Department also stressed that such rumour is totally unfounded and the visa-free policy of Singapore for HKSAR passport holders remains unchanged.