

Impact assessment: The Significant Improvement Test

Under the Environment Act 2021, the UK government has committed to review its suite of statutory environmental targets at least every 5 years.