

Increase of domestic timber to boost UK economy and housebuilding

New vision by government to deliver on its Plan for Change by increasing timber use in construction and boosting economic growth.