

Independent report: Natural Capital Committee's fourth state of natural capital report

This report sets out the work done by the committee since March 2016. It also makes a series of recommendations to government on developing the 25 year environment plan.

The Natural Capital Committee is an independent advisory body to government. You can read more information about the work of the Natural Capital Committee.