

Independent report: Vaccination of poultry against highly pathogenic avian influenza

A joint industry, cross-government report on the potential use of vaccination of poultry as a preventative measure against HPAI in the UK.