

KVIC's Big Push to Khadi and Tourism in Arunachal Pradesh with the First Silk Training cum Production Center

The far-flung tribal village of Chullyu in Arunachal Pradesh will soon be bustling with spinning and weaving activities with Khadi and Village Industries Commission (KVIC) set to open the first of its kind Training cum Production Center of Silk in the state.

Go to Source

Author:

Dr. Harsh vardhan lauds the contribution of States in popularising eSanjeevani, the Tele-Medicine platform rolled out by Health Ministry

Dr. Harsh Vardhan, Union Minister for Health and Family Welfare, today presided over a review meeting with States/UTs on the "eSanjeevani" and "eSanjeevaniOPD" platforms as 1.5 lakh tele-consultations were completed on the tele-medicine service platforms of the Health Ministry.

Go to Source

Author:

India touches a new peak of 7,19,364 tests in a day

In a new high, India has scaled the peak of testing more than 7 lakhs tests in a single day. Continuing the streak of more than 6 lakh tests in a single day for several days, India's tests have grown exponentially.

Go to Source

Author:

Shri Piyush Goyal calls upon more buyers and sellers to join the GeM, which has proved to be a game-changer in government procurement;

The Fourth edition of the National Public Procurement Conclave [NPPC], organized by Government e Marketplace [GeM], in association with the Confederation of Indian Industry [CII] for two days, was inaugurated online by Shri Piyush Goyal, Union Commerce and Industry & Railways Minister today, to coincide with the anniversary of GeM Establishment Day. The theme of NPPC is "Technology enabled Government Procurement – Towards efficiency, transparency, and inclusiveness",

Lauding the success of GeM in becoming a game changer in the Government procurement, Shri Goyal called upon more and more buyers and sellers to join the system.

Go to Source

Author:

Shri Piyush Goyal asks the traders to undertake customer awareness drive to promote Make In India Goods; Lauds their role during Lockdown;

The Union Minister of Commerce and Industry & Railways Shri Piyush Goyal has exhorted the traders community to fully contribute towards the Aatmanirbhar Bharat campaign. Speaking to the traders' fraternity on the occasion of the National traders' day today through virtual interaction, he said that they should undertake Customer Awareness drive to make people buy make in India goods.

Go to Source

Author: