

Infant formula: CMA outlines clear path forward to help parents save hundreds of pounds a year

The CMA has set out comprehensive proposals to deliver better outcomes for parents in the infant formula market – both in terms of the choices they make and the prices they pay.