

Innovative walking, wheeling and cycling projects win share of £1 million

The 12 winning projects will provide more people with healthier and sustainable active travel options across England.