

Insolvency Service encouraging customers to claim debt relief order refund if they paid the fee but didn't submit their application

People who paid a debt relief order fee before April 2024 but did not complete their application are being offered refunds by the Insolvency Service.