

Insolvency Service is making 'meaningful improvements' to the insolvency system

The latest 'Confidence in the Regime' report draws on the views of insolvency practitioners, directors, academics and legal professionals as well as people in debt and creditors.