

Insolvency Service launches video to help those considering taking on an Individual Voluntary Arrangement

Insolvency Practitioners will be asked to show the video to their clients to improve understanding and avoid poor practice